THE ROMANCE OF A PEERAGE.

A Plot to Drown a Claimant at

Most sepastional evidence has been given, says a London exchange, in a case before the Dublin Chancery Division in which Mr Godwin Barnham Swifte claims that he and his brother are lawful sons of the late Lord Carlingford, and therefore entitled to share in their father's personal estate, which is said to be worth £20,000 a

The facts are singular. The person known as the late Lord Carlingford married Miss Hopkins, the distanta mother, but it is alleged for the defence that he already had a wife, living in Apstria. known as the Baroness de Wetzar, After the death of the claimants mother Lord Carlingford married again and his widdy in contesting the claim on the ground that the claimant and his brother were illegitimate. Mr Swifte yesterday proceeded to relate to the Court the strange story of his career.

He was supplied with a most extraording ary sea chest, inscribed The Hon G. B. Swifte. He went over to London and travelled to Plymouth, but the captain rothed to allow him to join his ship, the Sandringham, Afterwards he joined the

SHARE REPORT.

In their wookly share report, dated 1st December, Mesers Vernoh and Smyth

Although we have no improvement to report in rates, a slightly better tone has been apparent in the market during the week under review. An impression seems to be gaining ground, among holders of stocks, that the recent steady rise in sterling exphange is not merely a flush in the pan, but has come to stay, at any rate for some time. The hasty rush to realize stocks for the sake of remitting money home has consequently been, to a certain extent, checked, and holders com to be more content to wait for a better opportunity of realizing than the present affords. . Ex. on London T.T. 2/1:

Banks. - Hongkong and Shanghais, with shares still in the market and no buyers, have failed to maintain their position and sales have been effected at $875, at which a few odd lots have changed hands. A small demand at that rate however exists at time of closing without meeting with a response. Nationals unchanged and without business.

Marine Insurances .- Unions are procurable in small lote at $750, but without sales. In Cantons we have nothing to report. China Traders have been placed during the week at $88, $881 and $89, closing firm at the last rate. .. North Chinas have ruled quick with small sales at Tles $924. Yangtezes without any local business are quoted lower in hanghai at $170. Fire Insurances .- Hongkongs have changed hands at $335 and sales of Chinas are reported at $86.

Shipping. Hongkong, Canton and Macaos have declined to $255 after small sales at that. Indos have ruled neglected at 895. Douglases are enquired for at $35 without bringing any shares in the market.

Refineries. - China Sugars remain without business if we except a few transac tions in shares carried forward over the settlements at various rates, which would give no indication of the market. At time of closing a few shares are obtainable at $215 and probably a little lower rate would be accepted. Lucons have changed hands at $21, $28 and $25, closing with buyers at the last rate.

Mining .- Nothing to report under this

Docks, Wharves, and Godowns .- Hongkong and Whampoa Docks have further declined to $165 with some sales at that rate. Rowloon Wharves have been in a steady -demand at $106 without bringing any shares on the market. Farnhams are quoted in Shanghai at Tis, 186 buyers.

Lands, Hotels and Buildings .- Hongkons Lands have been placed in small lots at $128, and close with sellers at that rate. Hongkong Hotels have declined to $149, and Humphreys to $12} with sales.

Cotton Mills .- Ewos have advanced to Tis, 65 with huyers; other stocks under this heading remain unobanged.

Miscellaneous .- China Providents have been negotiated at the reduced rate $9.25, Green Islands at $281, and Watsons at $12} ex dividend, the last named closing with further sellers at $121, and buyers at $12.

that he may be free to enter upon an educational campaign throughout the Kingdom, and, throwing off all disguise, he unqualifiedly declares for universa military service. There will be of course a great outery among a very large section of the population of the British Isles whose domestic comfort or commercial prospects will be affected, and the Field Marshal will need all the courage that distinguishes his from his fellows, to carry-the campaign to a successful issue. All the fore of conservatism will be arrayed against him and, worst of all, he will have to reckon with the dull apathetic opposition of ignorance which chills the grdent hopes of the most whole hearted enthusiast. These are the people who are at once the hope and despair of those of us who have devoted sufficient thought to the mat ter to realise that universal military service of some kind is inevitable if Great Britain is to romain in the van of the world. But there is hope for those whose opposition to some form of universal military service is the result of their ignorance of world conditions. Ignerance is a very difficult thing to combat but it can be overborne if the propagandists are in deadly earnest—as Lord Roberts undoubtedly is: Reuter's cablegram does not make it clear what particular type of service Lord Roberts is about to advocate. Conscription in he sense in which it is understood on the Continent, is utterly repulsive to British sentiment and it would be difficult even for Lord Roberts to per-

Of course it would not do to leave it at that as warfaro is a progressive selence. It has been suggested that in order to let industrial and commercial affairs be Goods per Siberia undelivered after deranged as little as possible, two or even three encampments of a fortnight's duration in cach instance should be held every year.
